5. [redacted] Met with Miss Dorothy Fosdick, Assistant to Senator Henry Jackson, and provided her with an unclassified blind memorandum on the meeting of European Communists at Karlovy Vary. Also provided copies of the conference statement; Golmulka, Ulbricht, and Rochet speeches; and Vietnam and Greek coup statements issued from the conference.

Discussed with Miss Fosdick, in Senator Jackson's absence, the Agency Mid-Career course and ascertained from her that the Senator is already committed to speak at the National War College on 19 May. His schedule for that week is filled with similar type appearances at various service schools. Miss Fosdick noted in passing that the Senator does not accept such engagements during the Fall because of a heavy schedule away from the city, and advised that it would be well if we got our bid in even as early as January for next year.
